And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there. I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are facing me. Philippians 2:13

“I must give up the hope of future years, when, God willing, we might still have lived and loved together, and seen our sons grown up to honorable manhood around us. I have no misgivings about, or lack of confidence in the cause in which I am engaged, and my courage does not halt or falter. How great a debt we owe to those who went before us through the blood and sufferings of the Revolution.”

“Sarah, my love for you is deathless, it seems to bind me with mighty cables that nothing but Omnipotence could break, yet a great cause comes over me like a strong wind and bears me unresistably on with all these chains to the battlefield.”
